

Now, fill in the blanks to sum up (résumer)

- Hawaii is made up of ____ main islands in the _____, including Maui, _____, and the Big Island. The soil is very rich, and Hawaii grows _____/ _____/ _____ and macadamia _____.
- In Hawaiian culture, a _____ is a _____ that people give as a sign of _____. A _____ is a traditional party with _____, music, and food. Hula dancers often dance to the sound of the _____. The sport of _____ probably started in Hawaii. The word "_____" means both hello and goodbye. Famous people from Hawaii include _____ and Bruno Mars.
- Hawaii's nickname is the "_____" and its capital city is _____. About _____ people live in Hawaii, and they speak _____ and _____. The currency is the _____.
- Hawaii has only one native land mammal: the Hawaiian _____. Every year, _____ come to Hawaii's waters to give birth. The _____ is Hawaii's _____ state flower.

Hawaii is made up of 8 main islands in the Pacific Ocean, including Maui, Oahu, and the Big Island. The soil is very rich, and Hawaii grows sugarcane, pineapples, coffee, and macadamia nuts.

In Hawaiian culture, a lei is a necklace of flowers that people give as a sign of affection. A luau is a traditional party with hula dancing, music, and food. Hula dancers often dance to the sound of the ukulele. The sport of surfing probably started in Hawaii. The word "aloha" means both hello and goodbye. Famous people from Hawaii include Barack Obama and Bruno Mars.

Hawaii's nickname is the "Aloha State," and its capital city is Honolulu. About 1.4 million people live in Hawaii, and they speak Hawaiian and English. The currency is the US dollar.

Hawaii has only one native land mammal: the Hawaiian bat. Every year, humpback whales come to Hawaii's waters to give birth. The yellow hibiscus is Hawaii's official state flower.